

Catholic Schools Week

January 27th ~ February 2nd, 2019

Sunday, January 27th: Celebrate Our Parish

Mass 9am. We would love for everyone to attend!

Open House & Art Show 10:00am: Classrooms will open up after church. Be sure to visit the Art Show in the gym, it is featuring your child's framed art work and is available for purchase.

Monday, January 28th: Celebrate Families

Generations of Faith: Children and Grandparents or other special family members can join in the gym before school from 7:15 to 7:50 for some coffee, juice, and donuts and a special prayer service.

Tuesday, January 29th: Celebrate Our Community

Service Day: Students will make cards and posters for our community! A few of the organizations will be the Police Station, Fire Station, and many of our local businesses. The younger children will also be making cards for local nursing homes and also for people in the military.

Wednesday, January 30th: Celebrate Vocations

Grades 6-8 will have a visit from Fr. Mark today.

Thursday, January 31st: Celebrate our Faculty & Staff

The teachers will have a special one hour lunch as a thank you for all they do!

Friday, February 1st: Celebrate Our Students

All students can dress down today in either their St. Linus spirit wear or their gym uniforms. FTC will be providing donuts and juice boxes for all the students this morning! FTC will also be sponsoring a STEAM museum that children in grades 1st through 8th will be attending. Preschool and Kindergarten will be enjoying a reptile show in the morning! Thank You, FTC!
